Synopsis

Ruined by the hands of another and tortured by suppressed childhood trauma, 17-year-old Eddy Price finds himself at a crossroad in life as he prepares to graduate high school and make the life-changing decision to attend college or enlist in the military. After receiving news of a passing family member, Eddy further mentally spirals out of control and become engulfed by rage and confusion mysteriously directed towards his father, Richard. Triggered, along with pre-existing tension between Eddy and Richard, the Price's household begins to deteriorate as secrets come to light, explaining the shift in Eddy's behavior.

Dramatis Personae

Richard Price (M) (Main & Understudy)

- Loving husband of Theresa Price and father of Mel Price and Eddy Price. A 24-year veteran of the city police department, Richard is aspiring to obtain the title of Police chief and has been since he first joined the police force. Demanding hours kept Richard away for most of Mel and Eddy's childhood, but if he "keeps the bills paid and food in the house", he feels as if he is, and always has, done his part. Light-hearted yet stern, Richard requires order and respect in his home, though the rules sometimes "do not apply" to him which adds to the pre-existing tension within the home.

Theresa Price (F) (Main & Understudy)

- God-fearing, kind, and patient Theresa Price wife of Richard Price, gentle mother of Mel Price and Eddy Price, and sister of Terri Richardson. Paralegal turned housewife, Theresa sacrificed her career in law to support Richard's dream of one day becoming Police Chief and fully focusing on her duties as a wife and mother. Losing herself while dealing with the rocky beginnings of marriage and parenthood, and finding her daily routines becoming a bit mundane, she turned her life over to God and continues to walk her journey of healing, understanding, and re-discovery of self-worth.

Melissa “Mel” Price (F) (Main & Understudy)

- Melissa “Mel” Price, older sister of Eddy Price. Mel has recently graduated college from her hometown University with her master’s in psychology. Shortly after graduation, Mel moved back home as she transitioned from her current job as a social worker for CPS to opening her counseling firm. Serious-natured, Mel’s tough exterior relaxes around family and friends, especially around her “best friend” (Eddy) but appears when it’s time to set her troubled little brother back on the right path. Mel is the subtle glue that holds the Price family together.

Edward “Eddy” Price (M)- MAIN CHARACTER (Main & Understudy)

- 17-year-old spontaneous, fun, and impulsive Edward “Eddy” Price, the youngest child of the Price family. Eddy finds himself at a crossroads having to decide between attending college or joining the military after graduating high school. This pressing decision, along with current family events, triggers Eddy leading him into a dark rage full of resentment rooted in buried childhood trauma mysteriously directed towards his father.

Meygan “May” Fredrick (F) (Understudy)

- 17-year-old gritty, fun, and spontaneous Megan “May” Fredrick, best friend of Eddy Price. May and Eddy instantly became best friends from their moment of introduction. Bonding over similar interests and immature comedic situations, May proves to be the grounding source in Eddy’s life, as they prepare to walk the graduation stage together. As an honorary member of the Prices family, May considers Eddy and Mel as her siblings though she feels “Momma Price” doesn’t like her. Though she often doesn’t show her true feelings, a hurt May reaches her breaking point with Eddy after learning of an impulsive life decision made without talking it over with her and pushes Eddy to reveal the reason behind his decision and what's causing him to “run-away”.

Leonard “Leo” West (M) (Main & Understudy)

- Academic scholar, southern gentleman, and peaceful-natured Leonard “Leo” West, cousin of Eddy and Mel Price and son of Theresa and Terri’s older brother. Leo is currently attending college at Mel’s alma mater, studying to earn his degree in Biomechanical Engineering, but took a break to attend Eddy’s graduation. Raised in a close family, Eddy looks at Leo as the grounding older brother he never had, and Leo humbly accepts that responsibility by doing everything he can to guide Eddy throughout life as a “black man in America”. Leo and Eddy’s bond become tested as Leo becomes concerned and frustrated with Eddy’s blatant disrespect toward Richard.

LaTerria “Terri” Richardson (F) (Understudy)

- Wild, hilarious, and blunt LaTerria “Terri” Richardson, loving wife of Kevin Richardson and protective older sister of Theresa Price. Terri instantly becomes the life of the party in every room she steps in. Often misunderstood as having a “problem”, Terri never shies away from an opportunity to celebrate with a little drink. Madly in love with her husband Kevin and their three children, she lives life to the fullest spreading laughter and wisdom with her inappropriate comments coupled with life lessons attributed by the graceful and merciful power of God-though she walks a “spicy” spiritual journey. Terri proves to be the unexpected critical piece of the puzzle to saving the Price family in times of hardships, though she holds a small amount of resentment towards Richard, and he towards her, from a previous situation causing a permanent line of love and tension between the two.

Kevin Richardson (M) (Understudy)

- Calm, stoic, and understanding Kevin Richardson, husband of Terri Richardson. Though married into the family, Kevin is the peace every family needs. Perfectly complementing the opposite of his wife, Kevin speaks in wisdom and peace in every conversation. Though brothers by law, Kevin and Richard hold a bond that of brothers, often confiding in each other for advice and support. Serving as the father Eddy wishes he had, Kevin holds Eddy close to his heart but finds himself riddled with shock and begins to become concerned as he recognizes and learns the root of Eddy’s pain and dismay towards Richard.

Detective Swift (M/F) (Understudy)

- Detective Swift arrives at the home of the Prices to deliver critical, life-changing time-sensitive information to Richard.

Higher Being (F) (Understudy)

- All-knowing and all-powerful Higher Being stops time to deliver a powerful message and second chance for Richard.
